

Following the riveting keynote address delivered by Pulitzer-Prize Winning Author, Isabel Wilkerson, at Savannah State University's 2nd Annual Women's Leadership Conference, we are convening an exciting book discussion group!

You are cordially invited to share insights and discover new perspectives on Wilkerson's highly-acclaimed work on the Great Migration. Follow the inter-woven journey of three young people who head North and West during different decades of the 20th century and the challenges they confronted upon arrival in the New World.

This group is open to all members of the Savannah State University campus, as well as the greater Savannah community.

"The Warmth of Other Suns is a brilliant and stirring epic, the first book to cover the full half-century of the Great Migration... Wilkerson combines impressive research...with great narrative and literary power... Ms. Wilkerson does for the Great Migration what John Steinbeck did for the Okies in his fiction masterpiece, The Grapes of Wrath; she humanizes history, giving it emotional and psychological depth."
