Session I: Thursday, August 27th, 4 - 5 p.m.
Social Sciences Building, Dean’s Conference Room 263
The first session would introduce faculty to the scholarship, issues and discussions surrounding plagiarism in the context of 21st century higher education.

Session II: Tuesday, September 29th, 4 - 5 p.m.
Social Sciences Building, Dean’s Conference Room 263
The second session would offer faculty the opportunity to discuss and learn about TURNITIN.COM as a tool for detecting plagiarism, but also, and more importantly, as a tool for responding to student writing, preventing plagiarism, and streamlining grading.

Session III: Tuesday, October 27th, 4 - 5 p.m.
Social Sciences Building, Dean’s Conference Room 263
The third session would be an assignment design workshop, wherein faculty can design assignments for their own courses, that meet the curricula needs, engage students, and discourage plagiarism.

Jonathan Elmore is the new Director of the Writing Center and an Assistant Professor of English at SSU. He has directed and worked within writing centers at Wake Forest University, The University of South Carolina, and Beaufort Community College. During his career, he has also served as a Writing Across the Curriculum Program Director, Writing Program Administrator, and QEP Director. His most recent scholarship regarding writing centers, “Going All In: Creating a WAC Program, Writing Center, and OWL through the QEP and Reaccreditation Process.” Reclaiming Accountability: Using the Work of Re/Accreditation to Improve Writing Programs, is forthcoming for Utah State University Press.

If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Lisa Yount:
yountl@savannahstate.edu
qep.savannahstate.edu