Transforming Students into Professional Writers
Lessons Learned
Linda F. Samuel, PhD, LMSW
Assistant Professor of Social Work
September 17, 2015
"Baxter...about this report...your punctuation, spelling and grammar are perfect. No one can understand it!"
Why do We Write???????????

- Purpose????
To communicate
What is Communication?

- Oral
  - Tone
  - Speed
  - Words choice
  - Grammar

- Written
  - Grammar
  - Content development
  - Sentence structure
  - Organization
The Written Word

- Choice of words
- Writing logically and clearly
- Meaning and intent are clear
- Use of appropriate grammar and spelling
- Appropriate use of email, fax, and texting – language used and issues around confidentiality

KNOW YOUR AUDIENCE
I need the code that we have to put in for live text. I checked my emails and I can't find it.

Your thoughts.............................
Hi Linda,

First, let me use this teachable moment to remind you to start professional communication (even something as simple as an e-mail) with a greeting. For example, Hello Dr. Samuel or Greetings Dr. Samuel. Your opening sentence should contain a specific request (i.e., Would you please send me the keycode for LiveText?). As an emerging professional, please keep this friendly tip in mind as you communicate with other professionals.

All this said, your individualized FEM keycode is FEM347…….. Have a great day. Dr. Samuel Types of Professional Writing

- Progress notes/assessments
- Treatment plans
- Statistical reports
- Program reports
- Grant writing
- Business letters/memos
- Policy development
- Scholarly/Academic
- Evaluation/Research Reports
- Referrals

Know your audience
Types of Professional Writing in Other Professions
I read about it on the www.teachadknow.com blog. You should subscribe, so you can learn about technology too.

You what on the what?

When will these teachers ever learn?

www.makebeliefscomix.com

Will Teachers Learn?

Greg Smith

This comic strip was created at MakeBeliefsComix.com. Go there to make one yourself!
Junior Faculty - Lessons Learned
Social Work and the “Write Attitude”

- Scaffolding & Social Work Education
- Human Needs & Human Needs
- Application-Social Work BSW Program
- Undergraduate-Introduction to Social Work
- Volunteer Learning Experience Project
- Volunteer Practicum Paper
QEP Faculty Development Seminar Involvement

- Writing & Social Work Profession
- Strengthening the Writing Level of undergraduate Social Work Students
- Learning innovative ways to teach students
- Social Work Gateway Course-SOWK 2200 & SOWK 3305- Introduction to Social Work
Before & After the Seminar

- Pre-Seminar
  - Volunteer Practicum Requirement-Learning Experience
  - Volunteer Practicum Paper-10-15 pages due at the end of the semester

- Post-Seminar
  - Volunteer Practicum Writing Project
  - 5 assignments>>> Final Paper
Volunteer Practicum Project

- SWOK 3305 - Social Work Practice
- Introduction to Social Work
- Volunteer Practicum Paper

The goal for students in this volunteer-learning experience is to gain familiarity with the social services delivery system of a particular agency/organization and the role of the social services provider. You will complete a series of projects (papers) that reflect your learning experience in preparation for enhancing your knowledge of social work practice. Each project will be combined in your final paper (Project 5). See detailed instructions for each project. Each assignment is worth 100 points. The instructions for each project will be provided throughout the semester prior to the due date of each project.

- Project 1 of 5: Summary of Volunteer Agency (Paper/Report)
- Project 2 of 5: Problem Statement & Literature Review (Paper)
- Project 3 of 5: Journal Entries and Summary of Volunteer Experience (Paper).
- Project 4 of 5: Oral (Power-point) Presentation (5 slides)
- Project 5 of 5: Final Project-Volunteer Practicum Paper (Includes Project 1-3 summaries)
Intervention Success

- Students
  - Management & Understanding
  - Less stress
  - Monitor Progress
  - Improved writing skills over period
  - Grades improve from assignment to assignment

- Faculty (Me)
  - Innovative approach to learning
  - Combining “hands on” learning experience with writing
  - Teaching Report Writing Skills
  - More papers to write and grade
Final Step

- Rubric for each assignment
- Use intervention in all classes
- Share with colleagues and encourage use in all Social Work courses
- Develop survey to track student’s attitude about intervention
- Overall seminar experience—Recommend mandatory for all new faculty during second year
Thank You!

Questions